Vaccine Institution.

THE small pox having appeared in Alexandria, such persons as have been vaccinated by the subscriber are invited to attend at his office, on St. Asaph-street, between Prince and Duke streets, to have their arms examined. Indigent persons are also invited to the same place for the purpose of being vaccinated. The subscriber will attend at his office every day in the week except Sunday, from 7 o'clock until 10 in the morning, for the purpose of receiving them.

He proposes also to be less particular than heretofore in the investigation of their claims to the benefit of the institution, as may respect their indigence and length of residence in town. The subscriber earnestly requests all such citizens as may be acquainted with persons liable to contagion, to send them without delay as above directed, where they will be served effectually and gratuitously.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. February 24

For Sale or Lease,

THE following tracts of land in Charles county, Maryland: one lying on the Potomac, at the mouth of Pomonkey creek, containing three hundred and forty acres, about 16 miles from Alexandria, the larger portion level land, of a stiff soil, well adapted to the cultivation of corn, wheat and tobacco, and equal in fertility to any in the neighborhood. On this farm is one of the most elegant sites for building of all those fine heights which border the Potomac, commanding the most extensive view of the adjacent country, both in Virginia and Maryland, for more than twenty miles up and down the river: located in a genteel neighborhood, it would make an agreeable residence, and from its proximity to market, with the advantage of the best navigation, an extremely profitable farm.—The tenant's houses would accommodate the negroes for its cultivation.
A Tract, about one mile back from the former, containing 334 acres, a large portion in wood, white and red oak, and some chesnut; the remainder a tenement in tolerable repair, the whole a high stiff soil, similar to the one above mentioned.
A Tract, lying at the mouth of Mattawoman Creek, about 25 miles from Alexandria, the whole first rate flat river land, now completely enclosed.—On this tract is a noted fishery, called Rum Point, at which there has been cleared upwards of two thousand dollars per annum, and where independent of the fish sold on the shore, there might be put up from one to two thousand barrels every season; besides the profits of the fishery, the advantage of manuring the farm with the offal of the shore, the whole, with a small portion of industry, might be made to produce ten barrels of corn per acre. On the shore, are a dwelling house, houses for holding salt, and curing any quantity of fish, and for the accommodation of hands.
A Tract, lying about 1½ miles from the last mentioned, containing 236 acres, more than 200 of which are in wood, and would cut from 25 to 30 cords per acre, within one mile of the river, where wood has rarely sold for less than five dollars per cord. It will be divided into 50 or 25 acre lots, to suit purchasers.—If preferred, the wood will be sold standing, for so much per acre.
If not disposed of, previous to the first day of Sept. next, the above mentioned arable lands, will be leased out, upon advantageous terms, for five or seven years, at the option of the lessees.
Application to be made to the subscriber, residing near the head of Mattawoman Creek, Charles county, Maryland.

MONDAY, JUNE 28, 1819.

Philadelphia, June 23.

U. S. Bank Stock seems to be declining; 89 offered, 90 asked, this morning, but no sales.

Yesterday, in New-York, U. S. bank stock was at 90½, sales; Spanish dollars, 1¼ to 2 advance; doubloons, $15¼; government stocks, and foreign and inland exchange, continued as last week. Kentucky tobacco sold at auction, for cash, at $2¼ to 4¼; short yellow nankeens at 79½ to 82 cents; domestic brown shirtings at 12½ cents; plaids at 17, and stripes at 17 cents per yard; prime New-Orleans pork, 12 to 13; beef, 9 to 11.

At Boston, June 19, Spanish dollars were 2¾ advance; exchange on Philadelphia was at ½ to ¾ discount; on Charleston, 2½; on London, at par; no sales of U. St. bank stock. and Degrand says that nothing is done with this stock in that market to take any sort of lead. He also remarks, that exchange on France and Holland is always uncertain in Boston, little being done in it.

SALES OF PUBLIC LAND.

The governor of the Alabama Territory, under the authority of the Legislature, on the fourth week in May, offered 183 half acre lots for sale, in the town of Cahaba, being part of the lands given by the United States to the territory of Alabama for the purpose of a permanent seat of government, to erect the public buildings, &c. 101 lots were bid off for an aggregate of upwards of 96,000 dollars. The highest price given for a lot was, 5,025 dollars, another sold for 5,000; of the number sold, none went off for less than 500 dollars, with the exception of one, which being low and wet situated, went a little under 300 dollars.

At the St. Stephens sales in April last, land sold very high, many tracts on the river commanding upwards of 40 dollars per acre; one tract sold at 96 dollars 50 cents per acre. Many tracts of high land brought from 20 to 40 dollars an acre. At the May sales at Cahaba, none of the land lay on the river; though the upland sold high; many tracts at from 25 to 35 dollars. CLAIMS OF PORTUGAL.

A notice has been issued in Portugal by the board of Commerce, from which it appears, that the Portuguese government is preparing to claim of the United States the amount of the losses sustained by their merchants, in consequence of the captures by privateers under the Artigas flag. The notice is as follows:

"The Royal Board of Commerce to all His Majesty's subjects, makes known:

"That his majesty has been pleased to order that the owners or those interested in the vessels insulted, robbed or captured by the pirates, present legal proofs of the losses they have sustained, in order that the necessary claims may be made upon the United States For this purpose, the persons interested in those losses are required to exhibit the above mentioned documents within thirty days after the date of the present notice, that they may be submitted to his majesty for his royal determination.

"In virtue whereof the said Board has directed the above to be published, in consequence of the order received from the secretary of state and war department, dated the 23d instant.

(Signed) JOSE ANTONIO DAS NEVES.

"Lisbon, 28th April, 1819"

This was to have been expected, as it is indeed surprising that we have not heard before of such demands being made upon our government. It is a fact which is daily established in our courts of justice, that almost all the privateers which, for so long a time, have been plundering, pillaging and robbing on the ocean, are fitted out in our ports. True it is, we have laws against such proceedings, but they are publicly and openly violated. When prizes captured by any of the Artigas privateers are brought within our jurisdiction, they are libelled by the representatives of Portugal and restored by our courts; but the property is depreciated in value, it is brought to an improper market, it is wasted by charges, losses and sacrifices, and every one is benefited more than the owners.

But of the number captured, very few ever are known to arrive in the United States.—The remainder are smuggled in under various devices, and millions of property are lost to the unfortunate owners. It is equitable and just, that if our government does not possess the vigor or activity which is necessary to prevent our citizens from plundering a nation at peace with us, we should answer for and pay the damages.

Scarcely a vessel arrives from a Portuguese port, which does not bring us an account of the dissatisfaction and disgust which they have contracted against us, and it would not be surprising, if they were to retaliate by authorizing or winking at the same enormities against us, which they believe we permit against them.

IMPORTANT CESSION.

It is stated in the Canada papers, that the Missisagua Indians have ceded to the British Government a tract of 2,748,000 acres of land, equal in extent to 46 townships. It is said, that "this tract embraces that elegant river, the Mississippi, from its source until its entrance into the Lake Chandiere or Ottawa river."

Police Office, City New-York, June 22.

On the 21st inst. a man, who says his name is EBENEZER WALAND, was brought to this office, charged with grand larceny, and which charge he has admitted to be true—On examining his trunks, a large amount of money in sundry bank notes was found in his possession, which he says he obtained in Baltimore, Philadelphia and Boston, by gambling; as it is most likely that the money has been stolen, or received by him for stolen goods, a description of Waland is therefore made public—Aged 32, five feet seven and a half high, light built, dark brown hair, hazel eyes, oval face, tops of his ears stick out very prominent; dressed when taken in a blue coat, velvet cape, light striped vest, and dark mixed pantaloons, says he was born in Cambridge, Massachusetts, was bred a mason, (his hands very delicate and white) that he was last in Boston, lodged there at Mrs. Ruthe's, in Federal street, a private boarding house.

New-York, June 22.

EXCHANGE BANK, 22d June, 1819.

Feeling the same moral obligation to protect the paper of the Washington & Warren bank as that of this bank, although not under legal obligations to do so, I have this day hypothecated sufficient property to pay the whole of the debts of that bank, with interest at seven per cent. per annum, and have full confidence in being enabled to do so within sixty days. For this object I have real estate in this city, free and unincumbered, to the value of near one hundred thousand dollars—I am the owner of two ships, soon expected from the South seas, and of nine other ships, some of which are very valuable—I have a large amount of merchandize on hand, and debts are due me to double the amount of the debts of said bank, a large proportion of which is in good endorsed notes—therefore every person who holds the notes of said bank may rest perfectly satisfied that he will, after a very short delay, receive the whole of his money. To accomplish this desirable object, it has become necessary for me to repair to Saundy Hill, and also to suspend the business of the Exchange bank for a few weeks. The Washington & Warren bank has not at any period since its establishment been embarrassed—on the contrary, it has, at all times, punctually redeemed its paper; therefore, the present alarm is wholly to be ascribed to falsehoods and misrepresentations which have brought on me these dreadful consequences after I have redeemed by far the greatest proportion of notes which the Exchange Bank had in circulation. Near four months since I observed the gathering of the commercial storm, which is now raging, and have been ever since curtailing my business, not doubting my ability to weather it. At that period I put a stop to the emission of Exchange Bank Notes at all distant places, except a few at New-Orleans, where my agent holds sufficient funds to redeem all that he has put out in that quarter, and those previously put out in the Southern States have long since been forced back by the course of exchange, and redeemed.—Since the first of May, ultimo, I have not issued one tenth of the amount of Exchange Bank Notes that I had issued at all other periods in the same length of time, since the establishment of the Bank, and the return of Bills the last seven weeks has been so immense that there is not a large amount left in the hands of the community, all which will be shortly paid in money with interest from this day, or immediately with stock in the Washington and Warren Bank at par—and I risk nothing in saying that I know this Stock to be good, although it cannot be at this time converted into money. I beg leave to assure the public that I have done all that it was possible for man to do, and that if they did but know the amount of money I have raised and applied for the redemption of notes unexpectedly sent in, they could not but be surprised at my performance in times like the present. I have been extensively engaged in business in this city 18 years, during that time once before I was reduced to the painful necessity of suspending my payments—I had the satisfaction of resuming them in the short space of three months, and of paying to my then creditors twenty shillings on the pound with seven per cent interest for the delay, which I think I have a right to claim of the public as a pledge of what they are to expect in the present case. I intend making arrangements very soon with a number of Grocers, Butchers, Bakers, and others, to receive the Notes of the Washington and Warren Bank, at par in payment for every article they may have for sale, thinking it the best means in my power of accomodating the holders. Money will be lodged in the Franklin Bank next week to pay the balances due the customers of the Exchange Bank on deposits.

LOCUSTS.

But who can say how long they will remain inoffensive? We hope they will not descend from the high station where they are located, (the tops of our tallest trees) to our cotton fields. God preserve and protect us if they do! a bad rot—worse locust—and from fourteen to seventeen cents for cotton. Then hie to the bank and the usurer.

Norfolk, June 23.

Capt. Carraway, of the schooner Thomas Tenant, from St. Thomas states, that a short time before he sailed, a small pirate schnr. under the guise of a Patriotic privateer, and commanded by one Mason, belonging to Baltimore, had been taken by an English 50 gun ship and carried into Barbados—the 1st lieutenant of the pirate after he was carried on board the ship, was tucked up and had 50 lashes inflicted on his bare back.—In consequence of the depredations of those piratical cruizers upon the commerce of the Islands, a Danish sloop of war hearing of the success of the English man of war, went out in pursuit of a small schr. which lay off Tortola, and took possession of her by stratagem and carried her into St. Thomas—she was commanded by one Palota—The Danish vessel took the crew into safe keeping, and not to be outdone in point of courtesy by an English man-of-war, they took the second in command (who belonged to within six miles of this place) and inflicted summary punishment on him. Both the above pirates were last from St. Thomas.

SUMMARY—FROM LONDON PAPERS.

Sentence of death has been pronounced against the young Count Samuel Belezney, for the horrid crime of killing his father—The Emperor of Austria has been applied to for a pardon, but he has addressed to the tribunals an order to proceed conformably to the laws, without regard to the rank of the prisoner. Shortly after the order had been received, with the aid of some of his friends, the Count made his escape from the prison of Pest, but was apprehended, and re-conducted back, where he remains in chains.

The Persian ambassador has been received with very great distinction in London. The fair Circassian who accompanied him from Persia, has also received the attention of the curious in the metropolis, many ladies of the first distinction having visited her, and presented her many presents. She is represented to be of small stature, her skin of a yellow tinge, of regular features and expressive countenance.

On the 29th of April, many persons of distinction, and some of the foreign ministers, visited the Ambassador. Among the latter was Mr. Rush, the American minister, and Mr. Adams Smith, the secretary of legation. In the afternoon of the same day, the Ambassador, accompanied by Mr. Gore Onsley, and Mr. Willock, his secretary, mounted upon three of the Persian horses, took a ride through Hyde Park. His Excellency rode a beautiful grey horse, with a Persian bridle and saddle, and was dressed in his national costume, in rich crimson satin, with a fine large sash of the same color, with a highly finished dirk, with a large diamond in the centre of the hilt.

The following letter has been addressed by M. De La Fayette to the Attorney General at Paris:

"I am informed, that M. the Attorney General has thought proper to cause proceedings to be instituted against the authors of L'Ami de la Royaute, on account of I know not what passage relating to myself. During 42 years that my life has been before the public, I never asked any writer to say any thing favorable of me, nor gave any person any uneasiness for having written ill of me, and though very sensible of kindness, I have never answered calumny. M. Bellart, will, therefore, permit me to refuse his protection, and, without knowing the offence, to declare, that I do not consider myself offended; I disclaim all proceedings in this respect, and oppose them with all my power."—[This is a species of magnanimity which we do not often hear of.]—Phil. Gaz.

Communicated for the Bal Morning Chron.

MR. EDITOR,

Permit me, through the medium of your useful paper, to make known the materials which compose my newly discovered COMPOST, that agriculturists may form some idea of its fertilizing powers. The materials are:

Sulphate of lime or plaster of paris
Porus carbonate of lime or chalk
Nitrate of potass or nitre
Carbonate of potass
Muriate of potass
Carbonate of soda

The value of the first article, sulphate of lime has been so gradually tested in the production of clover, that it will only be necessary for me to state, that it is a neutral salt, deriving its fertilizing powers chiefly from the sulphuric acid contained in it.

The second, or porus corbonate of lime, furnishes to the plant the carbonic acid, it is to this acid, that limestone lands are indebted for their great fertility. The use of the porus carbonate of lime or chalk in this compost, has a double action; it takes up the nitrogen which may be disengaged from the vegetable substances (as manure, &c.) and discharging its carbonic acid, produces the nitrate of lime as an absorbent; it receives and retains the other saline substances, and at the same time takes up a sufficient quantity of water to enable the plant to act on them with greater facility.

The four following salts the nitrate of of potass, corbonate of potass, muriate of potass and carbonate of soda, are those which give to ashes and manure the property of fertilizing lands. Vegetable matter communicates no fertility to the soil, until it commences its decomposition, and the salts and gasses begin to form, these salts enrich the soil, and the gasses are seized on by the growing vegetable. It will be observed, that all the salts of this compost are in a neutral state. Lime is used with success on poor lands, but experience has taught the farmer to let it remain exposed to the air until it becomes carbonated or slackened by the air—it is then only serviceable in as far as it approaches the nature of chalk or porus carbonate of lime. As a plain evidence of the nature of a neutral salt, I will offer as an instance plaister, or sulphate of lime, which is composed of the sulphuric acid or oil of vitrol, and quick lime—now, it would be obvious that the use of either of these articles, alone, would be instant destruction to vegetable life, while the combination of these destructive ingredients, forms a neutral salt. tasteless, and almost insoluble—and, when combined with more active salts, fertilizes and enriches the soil, and invigorates the vegetable.

These remarks will be sufficient to make the utility of this compost, obvious to enlightened agriculturalists; it is from them only, that improvements and discoveries in this science can receive encouragement.

From the Baton Rouge Gazette.

TOPOGRAPHY OF BATON ROUGE.

Situation.—In lat. 3o 3o, N. long. 18 11 from Philadelphia.

Lying on the eastern shore of the Mississippi, high, delightsome, and healthy being the first bluff or highland above high water mark: as you ascend that mighty river from its mouths. This bluff, although free from stone, is, notwithstanding, sufficiently firm, to withstand the violence of the river; is elevated about 3o feet above high water mark, the top of which is almost a perfect level, excepting a few small hollows or drains, evidently worn by the water precipitated from the clouds. There is, however, an almost imperceptable descent easterly of the river, from the top or verge of the bluff, barely sufficient to carry off the water.—The land is excellent for gardens and buildings, at least two miles back from the river, and will admit of cellars of any depth, and affords excellent water by digging 15 or 2o feet. In the northern part of the town is a piece of ground belonging to the United States, eight arpents in front and seven deep, on which stands the remains of the old Spanish fort, its walls of earth about 8 feet high. About five arpents north of this public lot, is a bayou, into which, in high water, the river sets back about one mile. From this bayou, southerly, the bluff bounds the river about 26 arpents, running S. 1o oo, E where it makes an angle with the river, say, 3o E. The town plat extends 16 arpents further south, making in the aggregate 41 arpents in front, and as far in depth as future population may require.

The Mississippi, about 4 miles above the town winds from the west, strikes the bluff nearly at right angles, wheels to the right, runs south 1o oo E. with the bluff one mile, where a bayou comes in—from thence to the first mentioned bayou, just above the town, is a narrow bottom between the river and bluff, about a quarter of a mile wide, and 3 miles in length, and which is overflowed in high water. The Mississippi continues nearly the same course one mile below the town, thence turns to the right, making an angle with the meridian 3o oo west, six or seven miles so that, when standing on the verge of the bluff, you have a most enchanting view of a section, at least ten miles in length, of that noble river, together with the beautiful landscape of the adjacent highly cultivated country. It is always easy to bring boats and rafts to a landing, as they are thrown to the eastern shore by the current, four miles above the town, and the bluff defends them from easterly winds.

Inhabitants—A mixed throng of French, Spanish, English, Irish, Scotch, Dutch, and Americans. Free people of color, and a great number of slaves.

Manners and Languages, are so far as yet, preserved in their original peculiarities, by the various inhabitants.

Public Buildings. To this moment, either their number or elegance cannot be boasted of, but there are some very useful establishments, such as one Roman Catholic Church, a court house, a school house, a new market house, and a public joal.

Parish of East Baton Rouge.—Bounded west by the Mississippi, south by Bayou Manchac, or river Iberville, east by the river Amite, and north (from said river Amite) by a line running due west to the mouth of Thompson's creek. Its length from north to south, about 25 miles; breadth from west to east 2o.

Time of first settlement.—About the year 1722—ten or twelve years before the Nachez massacre.

Rivers.—The Mississippi, forming the western limit of the parish—the Amite, bounding the east—the river Iberville on the south; the Comite, about ten miles from the Mississippi.

Neither mountains, falls or caves, are to be seen here; the only thing worthy of remark is the uninterrupted levelness of the country—the unevenness of which is barely sufficient to drain off the water.

Soil.—Superlatively fruitful.

Productions.—Sugar cane, cotton, Indian corn, sweet and Irish potatoes; the country also affords abundance of beef, Pork and large fowls.

Fruit Trees.—Figs, peaches, cherries, &c. thrive here. The orange tree would also succeed if properly attended to.

Climate—Temperate, mild, and healthy. The atmosphere, however, is charged with a greater proportion of humidity, than inland mountainous countries. Diseases, billious fevers, and debiliating complaints, are by far the most prevalent. Every family who are industrious and temperate, are healthy.

Speculation—To do justice to the rising greatness of future Baton Rouge would be a task to which the limited abilities of the writer can lay no claim. It requires no gift of divination, however to predict its future importance. Situated as it is upon the first eminence above high water mark, 250 miles from the sea, upon the margin of the great reservior of the Western waters, or "parent of rivers," the longest in North America, constituted by the United Streams of almost numberless rivers, many of which are the greatest and longest in the United States, flowing through a vastly extensive and luxuriantly fertile country; leaving the shores and fecundating the soil of every climate, from 49 to 3o north latitude, comprehending a width of two thousand miles, or two thousand five hundred miles from east to west, the vended produce of which must pass or be deposited in this place—its being equally free from the possibility of invasion; all which fortunate circumstances render it morally certain, that it is destined, some day; and that at no great distance, to be the greatest and most flourishing town in the nation, and the capital of the state.

But when the healthiness of the climate, the richness of the soil of the surrounding country, together with the facility with which art might augment the means of communication by water, in every direction—I say, when all these advantages are taken into one view, the astonished spectator is lost in admiration, and seeks in vain for the cause which has thus far held it in obscurity. Nature, in her partiality here, if she has not exhausted her stores of bounty, seems to have most profusely lavished her richest gifts, which indeed are more conspicuous than even the unaccountable neglect or inattention, or rather stupidity of those, who, heretofore, have had the management of its concerns, and who have had it in their power to do better justice to its merits.

Notwithstanding its many natural advantages, a great proportion of the parish of Baton Rouge is still suffered to rest in a state of nature. It is confidently believed that no section of the Union holds out so many and so great allurements to emigrants, either agriculturists or manufacturers, whether poor or rich.

The immense quantities of produce which is almost constantly floating on the Mississippi, and which must increase in proportion as the upper country populates, if it should be dear, must inevitably preclude the possibility of a scarcity. The industrious poor can always be filled with bread, a circumstance of which the famished soul well knows the value. The facility with which produce may be raised and brought to the best market, secures to the rich their darling object.

From the London Papers.

Extract from Captain Ross's work—"August 18, lat 76. While the moon was in sight, she had the appearance of following the sun around the horizon, and while these bodies were passing in Azimuth along the tops of the mountains, the snow which covered a yellow tinge, had then the lustre of gold, and the reflection of these upon the sky, produced a rich green tint, so delicately beautiful as to surpass description. On the other hand, the rays of the sun darting over the tops of the mountains, came in contact with the icebergs, which appeared like massy edifices of silver adorned with precious stones of every variety.—Such were the magic scenes enjoyed during a day, which lasted from the 7th of June to the 25th of August, of 1872 hours, without the sun sitting to their view.

Baltimore, June 26.

Mr. WILLIAM WHITE, who arrived in this city on Saturday last, from England, was drowned in Harris' Creek, on Tuesday afternoon, where he had went for the purpose of bathing. He was 25 years of age. Every exertion was made by a gentleman of Baltimore, (Mr. Charles Diffenderffer) who was but a short distance from the unfortunate stranger at the time, to save him, but to no purpose. [*Fed. Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, from the subscriber, on Sunday the 20th inst. a young bright MULATTO WOMAN. She is 17 or 18 years of age, of stout size, flat nose, downcast look, and a projecting forehead, but notwithstanding she is likely. There is no doubt, as she went off without provocation, that she will endeavor to make her entire escape. She has a mother in Georgetown, an aunt in Washington, and a grandmother at Notly Hall, the seat of Doctor Dangerfield, near the Alexandria Ferry; at either of which places she may probably tarry. The above reward will be given to any person who may secure her either in Georgetown, Washington, or Alexandria jail, so that I get her again; but if taken out of the state, ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS will be given.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber on the 25th of April last, negro SAM, formerly the property of Mr. William Robinson, of Fairfax county, Virginia, of whom I purchased him about 18 months ago—He is 23 years of age, stout and well made, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, of a dark complexion, has an impediment in his speech when spoken to—his dress consisted of a coarse blue cloth coat and pantaloons, a great coat of shaggy cloth. He formerly worked in a brick and timber yard in Alexandria, and has some relations in Westmoreland county, and also at the Sedley Mills in Fairfax, where I purchased him. The above reward will be given to any person who will deliver him to me in Loudoun county, or secure him in any jail so that I get him again.

Mills at Auction.

THE subsriber, who is the owner of a MANUFACTURING MILL, and a

Durable Geared Saw Mill,

On Broad Run, Prince William County, wishes to sell, and intends offering them for sale by public auction, to the highest bidder, on the first day of July next.—Persons desirous of owning this kind of property, are particularly invited to attend the sale, as the property will be most positively sold on that day, and as an opportunity of purchasing Mills so truly desirable, will not again occur.—To render the purchase still more desirable, there will be attached to these mills,

50 Acres of excellent Land,

One half of which will be in wood, or the whole, if required by the purchaser. In point of locality, no mills can be better situated, within half a mile of the road leading to the Thoroughfare Gap of the mountain, which is the route established by Act of Assembly as a Turnpike, to which there is the most ready access; and being surrounded by a country well timbered, and occupied by excellent Farmers, who cultivate extensively. Both these mills are in complete order for work, having lately undergone thorough repairs. In the Grist Mill, there are two pair of large Burrs and a pair of Stones for the Corn custom, which are turned by a force of water sufficient for the operation of an additional pair of Burrs, for which the house is abundantly commodious.

The terms of sale, one third of the purchase money in hand, and the balance to be divided into two equal payments of one and two years, without interest, and possession to be given on the first day of August, which will be immediately preceding the commencement of the manufacturing season.

The prospect for a crop of wheat the present season in this neighborhood, and for a considerable extent upwards is very flattering, and to a person who could apply his funds to such an object, it is confidently believed that no pursuit whatever would be attended with greater profit.—The sale will take place on the premises, well known in the neighborhood by the name of the Cloverland Mills, about half a mile from the subscriber's place of residence. EDWARD E. CARTER.

JOHN HOPKINS
Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

100 Dollars Reward.

IS known to have been kidnapped from a field near Germantown, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 30th ult. whilst at work alone, a Free Black Man, named HENRY HUDSON, aged between 21 and 22 years, of the height of five feet five inches, very black complexion and dark eyes, has a scar under his left arm, between the wrist and elbow, occasioned by the cut of an axe.

He is by occupation a farmer, a native of Kent county, in the state of Delaware, had on a blue cloth roundabout jacket, old black silk vest, corded velvet pantaloons, and a wool hat.

He is a very civil, inoffensive man, with rather a down look. There is reason to suppose that he was decoyed into a carriage, and conveyed southward.

Any information respecting him will be thankfully received. Keepers of turnpike gates, toll bridges, and taverns, are particularly requested to give such information as may be in their power.

The above reward will be cheerfully paid on conviction of the perpetrators of this flagrant outrage upon the rights of a freeborn citizen of the United States.

ROMULUS RIGGS.

AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 18

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE. at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE,

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. WM. HAWLEY, Washington,
Rev. WM. H. WILMER, Alexandria,
Rev. OLIVER NORRIS, Alexandria,
Rev. REUEL KEITH, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
